

International Summer and Winter University
FUBiS Music Composition Course 2012

The Freie Universität Berlin International Summer and Winter University (FUBiS) offers a special course in music composition. The program takes place during the first FUBiS summer term from May 26th to July 7th, 2012.

The Program

1. The course will consist of at least one private composition lesson per week taught by Professor Samuel Adler plus a three hour master class taught by other professional composers.
2. Each student will be matched with one or more performer(s), and write a work for them. The composition will be performed at a final concert during the last week of classes in Berlin.
3. In addition, students have the opportunity to take a class in conducting. Dr. Emily Freeman Brown will teach this class. She is the Music Director and Conductor of the Bowling Green Philharmonia and Opera Theater at Bowling Green State University in Ohio. (optional at extra cost).
4. FUBiS is a fully accredited institution, permitting transfer of credits to participants' home institutions (Composition Course: 6 ECTS credits).
